Guidelines

Any usage of the Library's meeting room space must conform with the Cape Elizabeth Town & School Use of Facilities Guidelines and Policies, in addition to the Library specific guidelines listed below.

- Meetings must conform to the Library's scheduled operating hours, with the exception of TML, Town of Cape Elizabeth, and Cape Elizabeth School District functions.
- Attendance at all meetings must be free of charge. No admission charge, request for donation, or sale of items is permitted. Meeting rooms shall not be used for commercial or fundraising purposes. Exceptions may be made if the total proceeds of admission go to a charitable cause; all such exceptions to this rule shall require the prior clearance of the Cape Elizabeth Town Council. Additionally, fundraising activities to benefit the Library and/or the sale of books or other items by authors or artists as part of a Library program are permissible.
- Non-alcoholic beverages are allowed.
- Snack foods are allowed. Full meals are not allowed without prior approved of the Facilities Department.
- Groups are responsible for cleaning the room after each use. Please replace chairs, wipe off tables and replace those tables set up by your group.
- All kitchen areas and the refrigerator should be cleaned and food/beverages should be removed. Any kitchen utensils should be washed and returned to the cupboards.
- Permission to use any Library space does not constitute or imply Library endorsement of the aims, policies, or activities of any individual, group, or organization, or any views expressed in the meeting.
- Individuals and groups using Library meeting rooms must not use advertising or publicity materials that indicate or imply that a program is sponsored, co-sponsored, endorsed, or approved by the Library. Advertising and publicity must include a contact phone number for the group and/or individual responsible for the program and may not include the Library's phone number. No group may consider the Library its permanent meeting place or use the Library as its mailing address.

- Any charges that the Library may incur for repairs, cleaning or trash removal, which are attributed to a group's use of the facility and not normal wear and tear, will be billed to the renter/user.
- A reservation/application may be rejected and previously granted permission may be withdrawn for violation of Library rules or conduct inconsistent with the policies of the Library.
