1. To what do you object? Please be specific; cite pages. Please use additional paper if needed.

2. Did you read, view, or hear the entire work?

3. Have you read, or are you aware of reviews of this work?

4. Did you find anything positive about this material? If so, what?

5. What do you feel might be the result of having this material available in the Thomas Memorial Library?

6. What would you like the library to do with this material?

7. In its place, what item of equal quality would you recommend that would convey an appropriate perspective on this topic?
